

Reading and prayer 4th September 2021

Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross. Colossians 1:15-20

Jesus, we worship and adore you

In you we have our being

Jesus, our Saviour and redeemer, we love you

In you we have everything

Jesus, in you all is known; love, wisdom, and compassion

In you we are reconciled to the Father, this day and forever more

Jesus, Lord of all we praise your Holy name

Amen
