

Reading and prayer 12 .7. 2021

God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God—not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

Ephesians 2:4-10

Father God Almighty, we give you thanks and praise that you love us despite our weakness and failings. We thank you that you have redeemed us and that we now belong to you. Forgive us when we forget the immeasurable gift you have given us of eternal life. By Grace, may we walk as your children, ready and willing to hear your voice and obey your commands. Amen
