

Reading and prayer 29th December 2020

Now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptised into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

Galatians 3:25-29

Father God, we give thanks that you only look at us through the eyes of love and all are valued and equal in your sight. As brothers and sisters in Christ, let there be real love shared among us and let that love shine forth as a witness in the world of the transforming power of life in Christ. May any scales of prejudice or bias fall from our eyes, that we like you, will look with eyes and hearts of love on all with whom we share the world. Amen
