Forty Acres Fresh Market in Austin is delivering fresh produce to Chicago and the western suburbs, Mon-Fri 7-10pm and weekends 6-10pm. This is a paid service, but they accept SNAP benefits, and Veggie Rx participants can use Produce Perk coupons for up to 50% off purchases. There is a $5 delivery fee not covered by the coupons.

For CPS students who receive free and reduced lunch and breakfast, Chicago Public Schools will offer free meals for pickup during school closures. Families can pick up meals at their closest school location Mon-Fri between 9am and 1pm. Every child in the household will receive a food bag that contains three days of breakfast and lunch meals.

The Homelessness Food and Shelter Directory lists emergency food programs provided through food pantries and soup kitchens in Chicago and surrounding areas.

My Block My Hood My City will ensure seniors have access to food, health supplements, hand sanitizer and toiletries. Visit their website to request a care package.

The Homebound Elderly program through Marillac St. Vincent Family Services delivers groceries for West Side seniors who have limited mobility.

Meals on Wheels is another program supporting homebound seniors that is continuing to operate.

Updated 4/29/20
Chicago nonprofit Top Box Foods is doubling down on its commitment to serving those most vulnerable to COVID-19 by quickly adapting their delivery model to bring fresh produce and frozen meats directly to residents’ doors on the South and West sides. During this pandemic, Top Box Foods is delivering directly to homes every Tuesday and Friday. Food is offered at up 40% below retail and Top Box Foods takes SNAP in addition to credit cards. There is no delivery fee.

Plant Chicago is partnering with The Urban Canopy to distribute Link Produce Boxes to their neighbors on the southwest side. Produce boxes will be available for pick up in the Back of the Yards community on Saturdays with social distance practices in effect. This distribution is part of the Link Match program, so customers will only be charged $20 on their Link Card for a box that retails at $40.

Corinthian Temple Church of God is providing free care food packages that are available for pick-up Monday- Friday from 1-4pm and 6-7pm.

Housing

As of March 14, the Cook County Sheriff’s Office has mandated a 30-day suspension on all court-ordered evictions.

Legal Aid Chicago will support tenants with fighting any evictions that landlords try to enforce during this period.

See this document for information on applying for Emergency Rental Assistance through the Chicago Department of Family & Support Services (DFSS).
Tenants United is organizing to demand that landlords not evict tenants during the COVID-19 crisis. Fill out their contact form to request assistance with a specific housing issue.

Transportation

Please stay home as much as possible! But if you do need to go somewhere (work, grocery shopping, picking up medicine or other essentials) here are some tips:

- CTA is still running and not making any operational changes at this time. See their website for tips for riders and updates on measures they are taking to address this health concern.

  CTA: https://www.transitchicago.com/coronavirus/

- Metra and Pace are both operating with temporary alternate schedules to adjust for the reduced number of riders during school closures and work-from-home mandates.

  Metra: https://metrarail.com/riding-metra/service-updates/alternate-schedules

- Download the Transit App and subscribe to service alerts for the latest updates on your transit lines.

  App link: https://transitapp.com/

- You can also avoid contact by walking or taking alternative modes of transportation. Divvy Bikes are still up and running, and they are working with the Chicago Department of Transportation to offer half-off annual memberships for $49.50 as well as $1 single rides through April 30. As always, you can get a $5 annual membership if your annual household income is below their qualifying level.
