

Reading and prayer 1st September 2021

Whatever your task, put yourselves into it, as done for the Lord and not for your masters, since you know that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward; you serve the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:23-24

Father God, Lord of all, our lives belong to you and we are your willing servants. However we are used and employed may it always be for your glory. May each task bring both you and us joy knowing we have been obedient to your word. Let our lives serve as a witness to those who do not know you and our words echo the words of love you put into our hearts.

Amen
