

Reading and prayer 27th July 2021

Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Hebrews 10:23-26

Father Almighty, our hope is fixed on you who gave us life. We give thanks with our whole hearts, that a way was made for us to be reconciled with you, now and forever through our Lord Jesus Christ. Keep us close to you and each other as we live our lives with faith in you. We pray for all who over the last months have been prevented from worshipping together. May the day soon come, that once again we can all meet together in fellowship and love. Amen

