

Reading and prayer 10th December 2020

“I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, ‘I am going away, and I am coming to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe.

Father Almighty, you sent Jesus to show us the way. He has promised us peace in all our circumstances; He promised a different life. Though we struggle to hold hold on to his words and promises, we believe. In the midst of our doubts and unbelief we cling to you. Comfort our soul when peace escapes us, make us brave when we are afraid and fill us with love when it alludes us. Amen
