

Reading and prayer 5th September 2021

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favouritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonoured the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?

You do well if you really fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it.

James 2:1-10

Father God and Lord of all, in you there is no partiality, for all are loved and precious in your sight. We are sorry that so often we fall short of loving our neighbours as our selves. We ask for your forgiveness and pray that our hearts will truly be changed and we see others as you see them. Let no discrimination come between between your people; may we learn from each other, may we be generous to those who have little material advantages but most of all may we learn to love each other as you have loved us.
